

2026 BISHOP GARRIGAN QUIZ BOWL TOURNAMENT

GAME 5

TIE-BREAKERS

If the game is tied after the lightning round, ask up to three questions. The team with the first correct answer will score 10 points and win the game.

Question 1

For ten points, the name of what kind of pasta means “little worms” in Italian?

ANSWER: vermicelli

Question 2

For ten points, which of these modern inventions was released first: the microwave oven, the communications satellite, or the cordless drill?

ANSWER: microwave oven

Question 3

A 2026 study ranked states by their overall happiness. For ten points, was the happiest state Hawaii or Utah?

ANSWER: Hawaii

2026 BISHOP GARRIGAN QUIZ BOWL TOURNAMENT

GAME 6

TIE-BREAKERS

If the game is tied after the lightning round, ask up to three questions. The team with the first correct answer will score 10 points and win the game.

Question 1

For ten points, what country's coastline is known for having the highest tides in the world?

ANSWER: Canada (at the Bay of Fundy)

Question 2

For ten points, which of these modern inventions was released first: global positioning system, Microsoft Word, or i-phone?

ANSWER: Microsoft Word

Question 3

The border between North and South Korea is determined by a line of latitude. For ten points, is this the 28th or 38th parallel north?

ANSWER: 38th

2026 BISHOP GARRIGAN QUIZ BOWL TOURNAMENT

GAME 7

TIE-BREAKERS

If the game is tied after the lightning round, ask up to three questions. The team with the first correct answer will score 10 points and win the game.

Question 1

For ten points, which is the flattest of the continents?

ANSWER: Australia

Question 2

For ten points, which of these modern inventions was released first: DNA fingerprinting, universal product barcode, or magnetic resonance imaging (MRI)?

ANSWER: magnetic resonance imaging OR MRI

Question 3

For ten points, was the world's first commercially marketed cell phone produced by Nokia or Motorola?

ANSWER: Motorola